

What is the Employism (Family Edition Course)?

Employism (Family Edition) provides a clear, practical pathway to support autistic teenagers and adults into employment. Parents and carers will learn how to guide their son or daughter through preparation, recruitment, and early employment; employment consultants will gain an “outside-in” perspective to strengthen workplace planning and support practice.

Employism (Family Edition) is a structured, strengths-based course that clarifies common barriers experienced by people with autism spectrum disorder (ASD) across job preparation, job search, recruitment, and early employment. It is designed for both parents/carers seeking practical, step-by-step guidance and employment consultants seeking to enhance the quality, fit, and sustainability of the supports they provide.

Who is the course for & what are the outcomes of it?

- Parents/carers: Gain a practical pathway to support your son/daughter from job readiness through recruitment and early employment.
- Employment consultants: Strengthen practice through an “outside-in” understanding of ASD barriers and the adjustments that support workplace success.

What will you gain from this course?

- Identify common barriers to employment for people with ASD and practical ways to reduce them (home, services, and workplace).
- Use strengths-based planning to support job search, interviews, and first days at work with clearer structure and reduced overwhelm.

- Engage effectively with employment services (including IEA/Inclusive Employment Australia providers) and advocate for appropriate supports and adjustments.

COURSE MODULES:

- PREPAREISM: Job readiness, routines, and preparation strategies.
- IDENTIFYISM: Job search planning, working with providers, and practical set-up (including an email address “for life”).
- ENGAGEISM: Interview preparation and workplace practice visit; public transport guidance (Melbourne only).
- EMPLOYISM: Onboarding, workplace routines, and essential administration (Making Lunch for work Banking, Tax File & Super Account/Declaring all changes to Centrelink Tips for Successful Employment).

Purchase this course via the website. Train your leaders. Strengthen your workforce. Build capability that lasts.

<https://ktalk.au/product/employment-family-edition/> Click on this link for more information & enrollment for this course:

CONTACT US:

Phone 61 3 0435 555 453

Email: info@ktalk.au

Website

<http://www.ktalk.au>

“Exceed Your Expectations”

Check out our website for further information.

EMPLOYISM (FAMILY EDITION)